

New Investment in landscaping will connect two historic woods

Following £15million of investment, Countesswells continues to pave the way for improved green space with plans to connect Countesswells woods to Hazelhead woods. A new range of pathways will provide residents with room to roam as they take in the award winning community surroundings.

Read more

Countesswells boosts Aberdeen's bid for Britain in Bloom accolade

Countesswells is weeding out the competition as it supports Aberdeen's bid for the prestigious Britain in Bloom awards. Judges stopped off at Aberdeen's newest community to see how a significant investment in landscaping has added to the city's growing horticultural credentials.

Read more

CHAP Homes move into Countesswells

85 new homes and three retail spaces are soon to be developed within Countesswells, following the exciting news that a joint planning application with CHAP Homes and Countesswells Development Limited has been approved.

Read more

Outdoor enthusiasts join Countesswells for its premiere wildlife event

Almost 100 local and enthusiastic youngsters arrived at Countesswells at the start of this month, for a wild weekend hunting for elephants and tigers, when they took part in a special Bio-Blitz event.

Read more